The GW Graham Grizzlies figure to have a few growing pains as the 2013 season progresses with this being their first year playing senior varsity football but that doesn't mean their opponents should take them lightly.

The Abbotsford Panthers learned that lesson the hard way last week when the Grizzlies, playing their regular season opener, scored a big 28-7 over their hosts. The win was the first for the Grizzlies this year after they dropped all three of their exhibition contests.

The Rick Hansen Hurricanes, who are expected to be a force to contend with this season, got their regular season off to a strong start as well last week blanking the Robert Bateman Timberwolves 16-0 to improve their overall record on the year to 4-1 counting exhibition results.

The Grizzlies will be counting on their defense to have a repeat of last week's strong performance when they go up against one of AA Varsity's most talented quarterbacks in Rick Hansen's Alex Ho.

GW Graham will also be hoping that RB Brett Westad, who had an impressive two touchdown performance last week, will be able to penetrate a tough Hurricanes' defense that has been steadily getting stingier in recent weeks.
